

Languedoc Roussillon The Wines and the Wine Makers - Paul Strang

“There has been more ballyhoo about this domaine than any other since Daumas Gassac”

“There has been more ballyhoo about this domaine than any other since Daumas Gassac,” writes Paul Strang on La Pèira in his book Languadoc Roussillon The Wines and the Wine Makers.

“Paul Strang has been a main driver of the renaissance of South West France. This new edition confirms the coming-of-age of Languedoc Roussillon as France’s new fine wine region, a word of reference and a beautiful volume that wouldn’t have been possible five years ago, or with the combination of Paul’s research and Jason’s painterly eye. It’s already led me to brilliant wines I’ve never met before.” HUGH JOHNSON, OBE
