La Pèira Reviews

Reviews 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013

La Pèira 2010 – 97/100

Cassis, toast, crushed rocks, melted licorice and roasted herb aromas and flavors all emerge from this beauty, and it hits the palate with full-bodied richness and depth, brilliant purity of fruit and masses of underlying structure. It's a big wine, yet as is common with this estate, it remains fresh and lively, with a seamless texture and impeccable balance. One of reference point producers in the Languedoc, and in my view, easily one of the top estates in all of France, La Peira was created in 2004 by composer Rob Dougan. — Wine Advocate #212, Apr 2014

La Pèira 2011 – 96/100

Reminding me of the smoking good 2009, the 2011 Terrasses du Larzac La Pèira has fabulous richness and depth, with exuberant kirsch, cassis, dried earth, ground herbs and licorice-styled aromas and flavors.— Wine Advocate #212, Apr 2014

La Pèira 2012 – 94–96/100

With lively and fresh cassis, black raspberry, graphite, licorice and cedar notes flowing to a medium to full-bodied profile on the palate. Pure, focused and nicely concentrated.— Wine Advocate #212, Apr 2014

La Pèira 2013 – 95–97/100

Exhibits impressive raspberry, cassis, violets (and assorted floral nuances), exotic spices and licorice to go with a medium to full-bodied, vibrant and decidedly elegant and fresh profile on the palate. — Wine Advocate #212, Apr 2014
